Dear Friends:

The Association of Fundraising Professionals (AFP) Miami will continue its tradition of honoring, recognizing, and celebrating the philanthropic community at the 30th National Philanthropy Day Luncheon on Thursday, November 12, 2015.

This special day will mark the 30th Anniversary of the first time we paid tribute to the great contributions that philanthropy—and the leaders of Miami’s philanthropic community—have made to improving our lives, our local community and our world.

In partnership with The Miami Foundation, the Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce and the Partnership for Philanthropic Planning, AFP Miami will again reflect on the great impact that philanthropy and great stewardship has had on our great city.

AFP Miami invites the philanthropic community to nominate extraordinary individuals in the following categories:

Outstanding Philanthropist

James W. McLamore
Outstanding Volunteer

Julia Tuttle Award
for Community Involvement
& Corporate Citizenship

(Recipient must be a Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce member)

Outstanding Grant Maker

Please distribute this nomination form to the appropriate persons and help AFP Miami say “Thank you.” Honorees will be lauded for the great contributions they have made to the nonprofit sector towards enhancing the quality of life in Miami.

Nominations must be received by May 23rd 2015

Send to: info@afpmiami.org

Sincerely,

Richard Alan Lehrman President,
AFP Miami

Barbara K. Norland
NPD Co-Chair

NPD Co-Chair

Award Categories

Outstanding Philanthropist

This award is presented to an individual or family with a record of exceptional generosity who, through direct financial support, has demonstrated outstanding civic and charitable responsibility, and whose generosity encourages others to take philanthropic leadership roles on a local, national and /or international level.

Nominations should include specific examples of direct financial support to nonprofit organizations, the impact of the gift support, special achievements and leadership taken to motivate and encourage others to give.

James W. McLamore Outstanding Volunteer

This award is presented to a member of the local community who has demonstrated exceptional leadership skills in coordinating groups of volunteers in major fundraising projects and a commitment to the advancement of philanthropy. Nominations should include a description of the nominee’s quality of leadership and organizational ability, the extent of their personal commitment in terms of time and effort, the financial results of their efforts, their success in recruiting and motivating others, and extent of their participation in and support for nonprofit organizations throughout the community.

Julia Tuttle Award for Community Involvement and Corporate Citizenship (Recipient must be a Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce member)

This award is presented to a corporation that operates its business in Miami-Dade County, but need not be headquartered here. Underwriting of special programs and events, cash contributions, in-kind gifts of goods and services, and time and service committed by its staff are key areas of community involvement. Nominations should include a description of the extent of financial contributions to nonprofit organizations, services rendered, and leadership.

Outstanding Grant Maker

This award is presented to a grant making organization that has made a significant impact with its grant funding in the previous year in support of nonprofit philanthropic organizations in Miami-Dade County. The grant-making organization need not be headquartered here.

Nominations should include a description of the grant activity, the financial contributions and the difference that those contributions made to nonprofit organizations and throughout the community.
